Shri Alok Bakshi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Shri Pankaj Shrivastava, Panel lawyer for the respondents.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner impugns the issuance of the charge sheet dated 2.3.2004. The petitioner alleges the malafide that it is motivated and the Superintendent of Police has personal animosity against the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner would be satisfied if the Enquiry Officer from outside the district Janjgir Champa is appointed to conduct the enquiry in to the alleged charges. The respondents have no objection to the prayer of the petitioner that the enquiry Officer from outside the district Janjgir Champa be appointed.

Accordingly, it is directed that the Enquiry Officer from outside the district Janjgir Champa be appointed to conduct the enquiry into the charges levelled against the petitioner vide charge sheet dated 2.3.2004.

With the above direction this petition stands disposed of finally.
